

香港分析心理學會
Hong Kong Institute of Analytical Psychology

Myths and Fairytales in Analytical Psychology

by Brigit Soubrouillard & Marshall Lee

DATE:

23-24 Oct 2026*

VENUE:

Activity Room 1B,
Luk Hop Sing Shut Cultural &
Creative Industrial Hub
TungPo
No 2, Tsat Po Street, San Po Kong, Kowloon
九龍新蒲崗七寶街 2 號
東蒲
六合聖室文化及創意產業館
多用途活動室 1B

FEE#:

Members: $2,000
Non-members: $2,400

REGISTRATION DEADLINE:

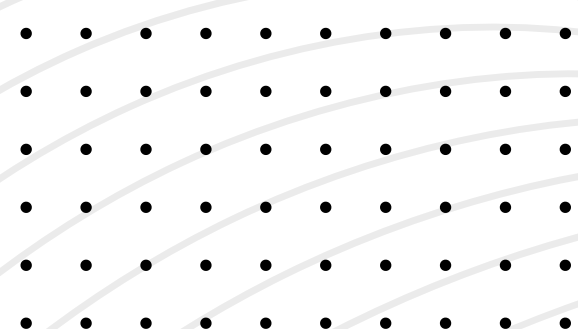

19 Oct 2026

*Playback is available after full registration
(Clinical materials excluded)
You will be notified for payment after registration.

#All fees are non-refundable

REGISTER NOW

Registration

Membership
Application

Abstract

香港分析心理學會
Hong Kong Institute of Analytical Psychology

This workshop explores the Chinese fairy tales, myths, and modern psychopathology from a Jungian perspective, bridging traditional analytical frameworks with cultural imagery of Chinese fairy tales and mythologies. The programme involves fundamental Jungian concepts to practical group work, and clinical discussions.

Programme structure

Friday October 23

- The traditional Jungian approach to Fairy Tales - fundamentals I (Brigit)
- What can the fairy tales bring us today - fundamentals II (Brigit)
- Fairy Tales and myths in Chinese Culture - (Marshall)
- Working in groups on a Chinese Fairy Tale

Saturday October 24

- Modern myths for postmodern situation - an example with the myth of the vampire heralding modern psychopathology (Brigit)
- Traditional motifs in Eastern myth and fairy tales (Brigit/Marshall)
- Discussion and bridges with contemporary cases and psychopathology

About the speakers

香港分析心理學會
Hong Kong Institute of Analytical Psychology

Brigit Soubrouillard

Brigit is a clinical psychologist based in France. She holds a doctorate in Clinical Psychology from the Pacifica Graduate Institute in California. She subsequently studied in Zurich and graduated from the double Adult and Child program in 1996. She has worked in private practice for over 30 years with patients from many cultures, and has also a long experience in a child psychiatry clinic. She has been a supervisor and senior analyst for 20 years teaching and lecturing in a number of Jungian institutes in Europe and outside Europe.

She was the President of the French Jungian Society, and is now serving on the Executive Committee of the IAAP. She is also IAAP's Liaison Person for HKIAP.

She is particularly interested in art and in all forms of work with images. Her entry on 'images' in the IAAP website can be accessed with the following link:
<https://iaap.org/image/>

Lee Ming Chung, Marshall

Marshall Lee is a psychiatrist based in Hong Kong. He is a Jungian analyst with interest in exploring the cultural unconscious through folktales and literature. He held reading group and retreat on the Red Chamber Dreams, Romance of the West Chamber to explore the eros in Chinese cultural context. He runs a Cantonese podcast "Dr. Marshall Podcast" on child and adolescent psychological development as a means to engage with the wider professional circle and the public in psychological reflection of our daily life challenges. He served as the past president of the Hong Kong Institute of Analytical Psychology (HKIAP) from 2017-2021 and is a member of the board of director of the HKIAP.

Email: marshallmcleee@gmail.com